

Special Renunciations for children involved in rituals

Should a child ever have the horrible experience of being involuntarily subjected to satanic rituals, they will need to renounce their forced participation. Sarah was an eleven year old who had been brought up for the first five years of her life in a coven. Sarah's mother had given her life to Christ several months before. Her children had also prayed to receive Christ, but they were still being harassed. They were experiencing nightmares, dreams of snakes, banging noises, etc. We took Sarah through the spiritual inventory, renouncing all the practices of the coven that she had been subjected to. She had three "spirit guides" since she was three years old. After renouncing them by name, the voices stopped. Forgiveness was a big step for her (step three) since many people had deeply hurt her. After we finished, we asked her how she felt. "Like I'm sitting in the lap of God!"

There are specific activities that Satanists use in all their rituals. If we come across anyone that recalls satanic ritual involvement, we have them go through the following renunciations. Caution: Children are highly susceptible to adult suggestions and they often have creative imaginations. Do not ask leading questions. Some children are clever enough to tell us what we want to hear and lead us down a wrong path. They could also be fabricating a story that abdicates them from their own responsibility.

If children are paying attention to deceiving spirits, those voices could be giving them a false memory. False memories usually come from dreams, hypnosis, or counterfeit "words of knowledge" that others give them. Never use such "evidence" against another person unless you have some hard core external evidence to substantiate the accusations. Such accusations should not even be made against an elder in the church unless there are two or three witnesses.

Notice in the following list that satanic rituals counterfeit Christian acts of worship. Have the child read across the page, renouncing the first item in the column under "Kingdom of Darkness" and then affirming the first truth in the column under "Kingdom of Light." Continue to the end of the list:

By faith, I take communion which represents Jesus' body and blood which was given for me.

Donny was only two and a half years old and very hyperactive. He left destruction in his wake. He couldn't sleep at night and screamed in fear whenever he came to anything that was Christian. His family had recently left witchcraft and were trusting in Christ. His mother, sister, and brother had gone through the steps and were growing in their relationship and freedom in Christ. Donny's problems seemed to get worse after that. We prayed over him, with his mother claiming stewardship over his life. We renounced the involvement that he had in witchcraft, and took authority over all the spirit guides that were assigned to him. Donny slept for the better part of two days. Two weeks later he returned for a visit and he was calm, his whirlwind behaviour had stopped, and he had developed regular sleeping patterns.
